

Are you here for a routine blood test?

Would you be willing to provide an additional sample for research?

Please let us know when you are called in for your test.

We also welcome samples from children. These will contribute to protecting future generations and ensuring the continued success of national immunisation efforts.

Further information is available through the QR code below

Information for Patients — Orchid